Invitation to start the prayer

Day 1

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, let us gather in hope and in faith. At the break of day, we remember our sister N…, marked in baptism and called to new life in Christ. Trusting in the mercy of God and the promise of the Resurrection, let us observe a moment of silence, united in love, as we commend her to the Lord, who is light and peach.

Day 2

Good evening, everyone.

We gather in the presence of God to remember and pray for our beloved departed, N…. At this time of sorrow, we place our trust in the Lord, who is our refuge and strength. We also give thanks for the gift of her life, for the love shared, and for the memories that will remain with us. As a Catholic community, let us commend N… to God's mercy and ask Him to welcome her into eternal rest. Let us begin our wake prayers by observing a moment of silence.

Day 3

Good evening, dear family members, brothers and sisters in Christ. Thank you for taking the time to be with us this evening. Let us unite our hearts in prayer for our beloved sister N…, asking our loving God to receive her into His heavenly kingdom and to grant strength and peace to the family and all who mourn. Let us observe a moment of silence to begin our prayer.

Opening Hymn

How Great Thou Art

How Great Thou Art (1)

(B♭3- B♭3-B♭3)

Oh Lord, my God. When I, in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

How Great Thou Art (2)

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing
He bled and died to take away my sin

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

How Great Thou Art (3)

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

Introductory Rites

Greetings

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

May the grace and peace of God, our father, who raised Jesus from the dead, be always with us.

Opening Prayer

Leader:

O God, glory of believers and life of the just, by the death and resurrection of your Son, we are redeemed. Have mercy on your servant N... and make her worthy to share the joys of paradise, for she believed in the resurrection of the dead. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen

Liturgy Of The Word

FIRST READING Romans (5:5-11)

A Reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans

Hope does not disappoint us because the Holy Spirit has been given to us, pouring into our hearts the love of God. Consider, moreover, the time that Christ died for us: when we were still sinners and unable to do anything. Few would accept to die for an upright person; although for a very good person, perhaps someone would dare to die.

But see how God manifested his love for us: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us and we have become just through his blood. With much more reason now, he will save us from any condemnation. Once enemies, we have been reconciled with God through the death of his Son; with much more reason now, we may be saved through his life. Not only that; we feel secure in God because of Christ Jesus, our Lord, through whom we have been reconciled.

The Word of the Lord
R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 25(24)6-7, 17- 18, 20-21)

1. Remember your mercy, Lord,
   and the love you have shown from of old.
   Do not remember the sins of my youth.
   In your love remember me.

   R. To you , O Lord, I lift up my soul.

2. Relieve the anguish of my heart and set me free from my distress.
   See my affliction and my toil
   and take all my sins away.

   R. To you , O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 25(24)6-7, 17- 18, 20-21)

3. Preserve my life and rescue me.
   Do not disappoint me, you are my refuge.
   May innocence and uprightness protect me:
   for my hope is in you, O Lord.

   R. To you , O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Gospel John 11:21-24

A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

Martha said to Jesus, “If you had been here, my brother would not have died, But I know that, even now, whatever you ask of God, he will grant you.” “Your brother ," said Jesus to her, “will rise again.“
Martha said, “I know he will rise again at the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said: “I am the resurrection and the life. If anyone believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

“Yes, Lord," she said. “I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into this world.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

   R. Lord, have mercy

The Rosary

Leader:

My brothers and sisters we believe that all the ties of friendship and affection, which knits us as one throughout our lives, do not unravel with death. Confident that God always remembers the good we have done and forgives our sins, let us pray, asking God to gather the Soul of N…, to the Lord.

THE APOSTLES' CREED (All)

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried.

He descended into hell; and on the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

During Christ's last hour of prayer, the day before he died, he experienced the pain of rejection and the fear of persecution. In his anguish he prayed even more earnestly, and his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood. He prayed, "Father, not my will but your will be done." Jesus the Son of God is stripped of his clothes and tied to a broken shaft of a pillar. He is then scourged until his innocent flesh is torn to shreds, exposing his bare bones. 3rd Sorrowful Mystery — The Crowning with Thorns.

Christ the King of kings submitted to this mocking ceremony of being crowned as a king, with a crown of thorns! For a scepter, they made him hold a long reed. His torturers then pulled his beard, spat upon him, blindfolded him, and struck him saying, “Hail, King of the Jews! Tell us who it is that struck you!” Jesus endured the crown of thorns, so that we may share in his crown of glory.

4th Sorrowful Mystery - The Carrying of the Cross.

Jesus is made to carry His cross up Mount Calvary. This torture, coming after the scourging and the crowning with thorns, causes Jesus to suffer incredibly from loss of blood, thirst, and weakness. He falls three times on the way, but never complains. He could even reach out to console the women of Jerusalem. Let us learn to carry the crosses of our life and reach out to others in spite of our suffering.

After three hours of agony, He commended his soul to his Eternal Father, bowed his head, and died. Let us pray for the grace to forgive our enemies.
