Invitation to start the prayer

Day 1

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, let us gather in hope and in faith. At the break of day, we remember our brother N…, marked in baptism and called to new life in Christ. Trusting in the mercy of God and the promise of the Resurrection, let us observe a moment of silence, united in love, as we commend him to the Lord, who is light and peach.

Day 2

Good evening, everyone.

We gather in the presence of God to remember and pray for our beloved departed, N…. At this time of sorrow, we place our trust in the Lord, who is our refuge and strength. We also give thanks for the gift of his life, for the love shared, and for the memories that will remain with us. As a Catholic community, let us commend N… to God's mercy and ask Him to welcome him into eternal rest. Let us begin our wake prayers by observing a moment of silence.

Day 3

Good evening, dear family members, brothers and sisters in Christ. Thank you for taking the time to be with us this evening. Let us unite our hearts in prayer for our beloved brother N…, asking our loving God to receive him into His heavenly kingdom and to grant strength and peace to the family and all who mourn. Let us observe a moment of silence to begin our prayer.

Opening Hymn

Amazing Grace

Amazing Grace (1)

(F3-B♭3-D4)

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.

’Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Amazing Grace (2)

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be,
As long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

Opening Prayer

Leader:

O God, glory of believers and life of the just, by the death and resurrection of your Son, we are redeemed. Have mercy on your servant N... and make him worthy to share the joys of paradise, for he believed in the resurrection of the dead. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen

Liturgy Of The Word

FIRST READING Romans (5:5-11)

A Reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans

Hope does not disappoint us because the Holy Spirit has been given to us, pouring into our hearts the love of God. Consider, moreover, the time that Christ died for us: when we were still sinners and unable to do anything. Few would accept to die for an upright person; although for a very good person, perhaps someone would dare to die.

But see how God manifested his love for us: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us and we have become just through his blood. With much more reason now, he will save us from any condemnation. Once enemies, we have been reconciled with God through the death of his Son; with much more reason now, we may be saved through his life. Not only that; we feel secure in God because of Christ Jesus, our Lord, through whom we have been reconciled.

The Word of the Lord
R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 25(24)6-7, 17- 18, 20-21)

1. Remember your mercy, Lord,
   and the love you have shown from of old.
   Do not remember the sins of my youth.
   In your love remember me.

   R. To you , O Lord, I lift up my soul.

2. Relieve the anguish of my heart and set me free from my distress.
   See my affliction and my toil
   and take all my sins away.

   R. To you , O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 25(24)6-7, 17- 18, 20-21)

3. Preserve my life and rescue me.
   Do not disappoint me, you are my refuge.
   May innocence and uprightness protect me:
   for my hope is in you, O Lord.

   R. To you , O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Gospel John 11:21-24

A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

Martha said to Jesus, “If you had been here, my brother would not have died, But I know that, even now, whatever you ask of God, he will grant you.” “Your brother ," said Jesus to her, “will rise again.“
Martha said, “I know he will rise again at the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said: “I am the resurrection and the life. If anyone believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

“Yes, Lord," she said. “I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into this world.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Closing Hymn

Come Back To Me (Hosea)

Come Back To Me (Hosea) (1)

(C4-G4-A4)

Come back to me with all your heart.
Don't let fear keep us apart.
Trees do bend, 'though straight and tall;
so must we to others' call.

Long have I waited for your coming home to me
and living deeply our new life.

Come Back To Me (Hosea) (2)

The wilderness will lead you to your heart where I will speak.
Integrity and justice,
With tenderness, you shall know.

Long have I waited for your coming home to me
and living deeply our new life.

You shall sleep secure with peace;
faithfulness will be your joy.

Long have I waited for your coming home to me
and living deeply our new life.

Jesus, we trust in You

Thank you
